STARICK SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

starick
Building futures free from violence

ABOUT STARICK

Starick is a charity supporting women and children escaping family and domestic violence.

Our vision is to build futures free from violence for the women and children who use our service and for the community as a whole

OUR SERVICES

PREVENTION

Starick's prevention programs are facilitated in spaces where children and young people spend significant amounts of time to maximise our capacity to create generational change.

We provide programs in primary and secondary schools as well as sport and recreation organisations in Western Australia.

Respectful Relationships Teacher Support Program

Starick supports WA schools to embed a whole school approach addressing gendered drivers of violence.

We deliver:

- culturally appropriate training
- online resources and information workshops
- meetings with schools and attending school open nights to promote the program within school communities.

Respectful Relationships Sport and Recreation Program

Starick commenced the co-design and delivery of our Respectful Relationships Program for Sports and Recreation with WA sporting organisations and regional local governments in 2023.

The program aims to educate young people and the sport and recreation sector about FDV prevention, and to support healthy and positive relationships.

EARLY INTERVENTION

Starick provides a range of early intervention services and programs to improve the safety and wellbeing of children and young people to break the cycle of violence.

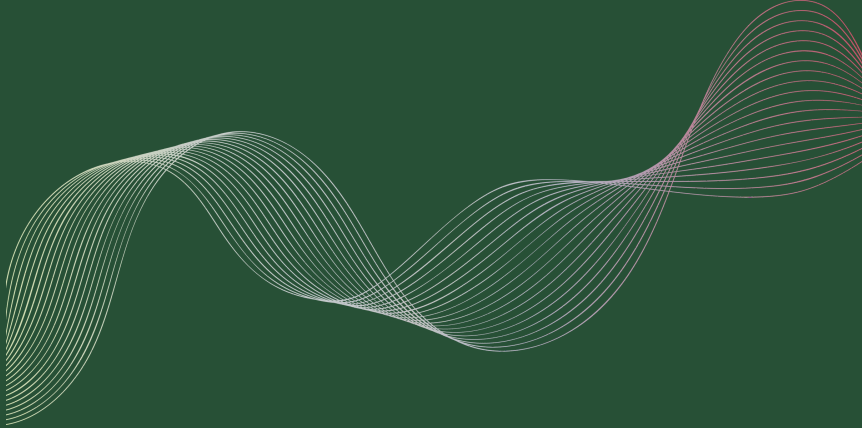

Our Early Intervention Project, is an innovative world-first project that brings social work, speech pathology and occupational therapy students into our services to develop programs and other interventions to support children and their mothers.

The project developed and delivered in partnership with Curtin University School of Allied Health, won the WACOSS Community Sector Award for a medium size business in 2023.

Starick's Thriving Through Connection & Moorditj Koolangah programs, funded by Telethon are pilot programs supporting young people 11 – 17, who are directly impacted by FDV. Youth workers provide intensive and responsive support to young people in refuges and the community.

CRISIS INTERVENTION

Starick's crisis services provide immediate safety to women and their children escaping FDV. Our services also contribute to women and children's ongoing healing and recovery by providing safe and supportive spaces.

Our safe spaces include:

- two refuges - Mary Smith and Starick House
- access to emergency accommodation
- mobile outreach service
- FDV advocates in Armadale, Cannington and Kensington police stations
- Our Safe at Home Program allowing women and children to remain safely in their home.

Other crisis services include risk assessment, court support, help to access social security, immigration and housing.

RECOVERY

Starick counsellors create a safe environment for women and children to build their resilience and self-awareness and to develop effective coping strategies.

We also provide counselling for women and children, along with and play-based therapy for children and young people in our refuges. These services are made possible through generous donations from individuals and philanthropic foundations.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Mobile Outreach & Emergency Assistance

Starick's outreach worker supports women and children in the community who have escaped family and domestic violence by assisting with safety planning, liaising with government services & support groups, as well as support to attend court or access to legal services.

ADVOCACY

We work as advocates for victim survivors and the FDV sector by participating in various projects and steering committees including:

FDV Commissioning Expert Reference Group, Preventing Violence Together Steering Committee, Community Advisory Group for a Heathway funded project - Curtin University Faculty of Health Science, Developing transitional housing models, and the Board of WESNET

Starick is an innovative client focused organisation.

Our service wheel illustrates how we work across the continuum of prevention, early intervention, crisis intervention, re-establishment and recovery in order to effectively deliver an integrated and multi-faceted family & domestic violence service.
