

Anna Wildy – Chair

Anna is a policy professional, with over 15 years' experience working in State government departments. She built her career working as a researcher in the university sector, and has experience developing and implementing policy, and has a strong understanding of governance.

She is familiar with working in a regulatory environment and has implemented policy initiatives in service delivery, developing key relationships with stakeholders. She has experience with legislative and policy reform and has developed statewide workforce development policy initiatives and completed statutory reviews.

Anna has a Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Anthropology and a master's in communication studies from the University of Western Australia, as well as a Graduate Certificate in Business (Public Sector Management) and Diploma of Management.

Carolyn Turner - Deputy Chair

Carolyn is a senior executive with extensive experience across commercial and not-for-profit sectors in Australia and Asia. Her career spans aviation and tourism, alongside senior leadership roles within purpose-driven organisations across health, education, community services and sporting associations.

She is currently General Manager, Growth and Engagement at Uniting WA, with responsibility for brand, communications, stakeholder engagement, advocacy and philanthropic funding across a diverse social services portfolio.

Carolyn brings to the Starick Board strong expertise in governance-aligned communications, strategic partnerships, philanthropy and stakeholder engagement, informed by her experience working closely with executive leadership, boards, government, community organisations and major funders.

She is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and has previously served on the Board of the Conservation Commission of Western Australia.

Simone Hansen – Treasurer

Simone is an experienced leader with a demonstrated history of successfully leading large complex businesses not only in the highly competitive sporting landscape as the Group Chief Executive Officer Netball WA, West Coast Fever and Glass Jar Australia; but in financial services having led large retail, commercial and third-party banking teams across Western Australia, South Australia and the Northern Territory.

As Group CEO of Netball WA Simone has implemented significant organisational governance changes, led the West Coast Fever team to its first Premiership, re-built the Group's brand and reputation, developed strong, productive relationships with all stakeholders, implemented strategies that have created a more financially sustainable business and led the development and implementation of strategic plans

Simone graduated from Adelaide University with a Bachelor of Commerce and began her working life with the Commonwealth Bank in several frontline roles before moving to Sydney to commence her leadership journey. Since then, she has held senior roles in the Banking & Finance sector for Bendigo and Adelaide Bank and Aussie Home Loans, before pivoting her career into the realm of sports.

Simone has been a Non-Executive Director at AIM WA since 2016, is an Executive Director of Glass Jar Australia and has recently joined the Board of Starick Services Pty Ltd.

Jacqui Hall

Jacqui is an experienced finance professional, holding leadership positions across both commercial and not for profit entities, working within several sectors including, Utilities, mining and construction services, aged care, retail, and telecommunications.

Jacqui is Certified Practising Accountant, holds a Bachelor of Business with a double major in Accounting and Business Law from Curtin University and a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Directors.

Jacqui is currently the Interim Chief Financial Officer for the Bethanie Group Incorporated.

Brad Jolly

Brad Jolly has over 30 years of senior leadership experience across the public and private sectors, specialising in public policy, program implementation, and industry regulation across portfolios such as child protection, family and domestic violence, disability, homelessness, and childcare.

He has overseen procurement and contract management of human services in Western Australia, contributed to national early childhood education and care policy, and serves on the board of the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA).

Brad has held governance roles with several for-purpose organisations and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

He also holds an MBA from the University of Western Australia.

Claudia Mancini

Claudia Mancini is a mental health professional with over ten years' experience working in the not-for-profit sector. Her experience spans a range of roles across youth mental health, community arts, and higher education.

Claudia has been a member of the Starick Board for four years and has served on the Marketing and Fundraising Sub-Committee for five years, where she currently holds the position of Chair. During her time at Starick, Claudia has overseen the establishment of Side by Side, one of Starick's flagship annual fundraisers - an all-day music event designed to engage younger audiences and local businesses as supporters and donors of Starick.

Claudia is a PACFA-registered counsellor. She currently works at Edith Cowan University where she coordinates a mental health and wellbeing service for students.